

ETHICS AND PHILOSOPHY EVENT

for High School Students and Families

A free interactive event for Seattle high school students and their families, to explore together ethics issues such as:

- What is the moral significance of naming and renaming public buildings?
- How do you decide between competing obligations?
- Does wealth allow people to make more ethical choices?

Snacks and drinks will be served!

No philosophy experience necessary!

REGISTER HERE!

Spots are limited. Please register soon and only do so if you know you can make it.

March 30, 2023

6:30 PM - 8 PM

Nova High School
2410 E Cherry Street
Seattle, Washington

FOR MORE INFORMATION, EMAIL INFO@PLATO-PHILOSOPHY.ORG